

Fundraising with The Challenger Baseball Song and Other Hits

Conceived of by Tony Chironno, a Challenger Baseball director, manager and parent and put to music by award winning Ben Rudnick & Friends, the Challenger Baseball Song captures the excitement and pride shared by thousands of young people in the Challenger Baseball program. In addition to "The Challenger Baseball Song," Ben Rudnick and Friends have added five of their best-loved songs to make this a CD the whole family will enjoy together.

Ben Rudnick & Friends is offering the Challenger Baseball Song and Other Hits CD to Challenger leagues, divisions, coaches and parents as a device to raise money for uniforms, officials, field rentals and other necessities to help make their organization's season a success. Why is this such a great fundraising vehicle?

- Beautifully packaged CD by award winning band and endorsed by Little League
- An anthem for all Challenger Baseball participants, families, and supporters
- A way to share with others information about Challenger and the kids who play
- Requires very little effort to generate dollars by selling the CD
 - At games and gatherings
 - On your Challenger Web page
 - Through local sponsors and businesses
 - At your very own Ben Rudnick & Friends concert

Ben Rudnick & Friends provides all the tools you need to raise money easily including pricing details and tools for selling the CD via any of the ways listed above.
